High Performance Cricket Coach Wanted

Lytham Cricket Club is looking for a qualified and experienced club coach.

About You

Ideally, you will have proven experience working in a club environment and already possess as minimum an ECB Level 3 coaching qualification or equivalent.

You will have played cricket at professional level or at the highest possible amateur standard, i.e. ECB Premier League or similar.

You will be a non-playing coach, able to focus solely on Lytham CC coaching requirements.

You will have strong grasp of how the game has developed over the last 10-15 years.

Demonstrate previous experience of running junior and senior club coaching programmes.

You will have strong values and ideas about how the game should be played and the ability to communicate this ethos.

You will be familiar with technical innovations to assist coaches and player development and hold a demonstrable coaching philosophy.

Candidates who do not possess a current DBS certificate, Safeguarding & Protecting Children Certificate and Emergency 1st Aid Certificate will not be considered for this role.

About the Job

Supported by qualified coaches and coaching assistants, the club coach will be responsible for delivering a structured programme aimed at improving the fundamental skills of the game covering the key areas of batting, bowling, fielding and mental approach.

They will be also be expected to identify weaknesses and develop improvement plans for key players at both junior and senior levels.

Additionally

- To provide advice and direction to the Junior Cricket Co-ordinator.
- To organise and lead the development/coaching of individual junior cricketers and teams.
- To instil the correct cricketing mind set.
- To help and offer advice to the coaches and coaching assistants.
- To assist and give advice upon the introduction of juniors players to senior cricket.
- To advise and coach senior cricketers at all levels.
- To ensure the club coach keeps abreast of junior related business they must be computer literate and have access to email.

Lytham CC prides itself on being a family club and holds various social and fundraising activities throughout the year. We would hope that the successful candidate would embrace this ethos and attend these events.
